What is Cryptocurrency?

A question for which 90% of AAC new member contacts have no knowledge.

AAC and its Team of upline coaches will guide you to full understanding.

- Apex Alliance Club (AAC) and its relationship with Optimus Prime (OP) trading platform, utilizes cryptocurrency in a Decentralized monetary environment. There are several types of these assets.
- AAC utilizes USDT for deposits into new member OP accounts.
USDT (Tether) is a stablecoin, which is a type of cryptocurrency. It is not considered an altcoin in the traditional sense.
- Difference Between Cryptocurrency, Altcoin, and Stablecoin:
- Cryptocurrency:
- Cryptocurrency is a broad term for any digital currency that operates on a blockchain. For an explanation of “What is a blockchain?” Be careful what you wish for and visit the Appendix at the end of this handbook.
- Examples: Bitcoin (BTC), Ethereum (ETH), and even stablecoins like USDT.
- Altcoin (Alternative Coin):
- Any cryptocurrency that is not Bitcoin.
- Most altcoins have their own blockchain or operate as tokens on existing blockchains.
- Examples: Ethereum (ETH), Solana (SOL), Ripple (XRP), Litecoin (LTC).
- Stablecoin (A Subtype of Cryptocurrency):
- A cryptocurrency designed to maintain a stable value, often pegged to a fiat currency like the US dollar.
- USDT is pegged to 1 US dollar (USD), making it a stablecoin rather than a traditional altcoin.

How do I Process Cryptocurrency?

To convert USD into USDT, OP members need to utilize a centralized cryptocurrency exchange (CEX). This will be explained in detail later in this Handbook. It is highly recommended that members utilize a CEX that is a registered Money Services Business (MSB).

What is an MSB registration?
Crypto exchanges with an MSB license are registered with the US Treasury Dept's FinCEN (Financial Crimes Enforcement Network). This registration requires that the exchange follows anti-money laundering (AML) and know-your-customer (KYC) rules.

How can I search for a specific cryptocurrency exchange (CEX) and their MSB registration?

Money Services Business (MSB) Registration

NOTICE: On February 24, 2012, the Financial Crimes Enforcement Network (FinCEN) issued a final notice requiring the electronic filing of most FinCEN reports by July 1, 2012. Institutions are strongly encouraged to begin using the BSA E-Filing System as soon as possible. For more information about mandatory E-Filing, please see our Frequently Asked Questions \(FAQs\), and the E-Filing webinar.

With few exceptions, each money services business (MSB) must register with the Department of the Treasury. A person that is an MSB solely because that person serves as an agent of another MSB is not required to register.

Registration of an MSB is the responsibility of the owner or controlling person of the MSB and must be filed by the registration deadline. The form, Registration of Money Services Business, FinCEN Form 107, must be completed and signed by the owner or controlling person and filed within 180 days after the date on which the MSB is established.

Registration must be renewed every two years. Re-registration is required in limited circumstances.

A copy of the filed registration form and other supporting documentation must be retained at a location in the United States for a period of five years.

Penalties. Civil and criminal penalties may be imposed for violation of the registration requirement.

Fraudsters are using the Financial Crimes Enforcement Network's (FinCEN's) money services business (MSB) registration process to defraud the public. You should not trust a company only because it is listed on this Web page.

Fraudsters are attempting to steal money by claiming to be an MSB "approved" or "endorsed" by FinCEN. These criminals mislead people by telling them it is safe to send funds to or invest in a business, simply because it is listed on FinCEN's MSB Registrant Search website. FinCEN does not approve or endorse any business that has registered as an MSB. Any such claim and similar claims are false and may be part of a scam.

FinCEN encourages the public to research any business and make sure it is legitimate before sending funds to or investing in the business. To learn more about identifying other scams, visit How To Avoid a Scam | Consumer Advice \(ftc.gov\) and FinCEN's December 2024 Alert on Fraud Schemes Abusing FinCEN's Name, Insignia, and Authorities for Financial Gain. The public is reminded that any solicitations from individuals or entities abusing FinCEN's name, insignia, or authorities, or impersonating a FinCEN employee should be reported to Treasury's Office of Inspector General and the Federal Trade Commission.

The MSB Registrant Search Web page contains entities that have registered as MSBs pursuant to the Bank Secrecy Act (BSA) regulations at 31 CFR 1022.380(a)(f), administered by FinCEN.

You cannot register as an MSB on this Web page. All MSB registrations must be completed electronically through the BSA E-Filing System.

The MSB Registrant Search Web page reflects information exactly as provided by the registrant. - The MSB Registrant Search Web page is the public information source for MSBs registered with the Financial Crimes Enforcement Network (FinCEN).
- MSB acknowledgement letters will not be sent to MSBs. FinCEN will not provide facsimiles or copies of filed Registration of Money Services Business (RMSB) Form 107a.

How to Survive in a Monetary World?

Here are block diagrams illustrating the concept of Centralized vs. Decentralized Banking Systems:

- 1. Centralized System (Left Diagram)
- A single central authority controls the system.
- All nodes (users, banks, or organizations) depend on this central point.
- If the central authority fails, the entire system is affected.
- Example: Traditional banking systems, where a bank verifies all transactions.
- 2. Decentralized System (Right Diagram)
- No single point of control; multiple nodes communicate directly with each other.
- More resilient to failures since the system does not depend on a single controlling entity.
- Used in blockchain and cryptocurrency networks like Bitcoin and Ethereum.
- Example: Peer-to-peer (P2P) networks, where users can exchange data or transactions without a central authority.
- TradFi (Traditional Finance) is centralized, while DeFi (Decentralized Finance) in the crypto world, operates in a decentralized manner, allowing financial services without intermediaries, cut out the middleman and excess fees.

Where can I exchange my US dollars for USDT?

- Recommendation#1
- Recommendation#2

- To convert USD to USDT, members need to use a Centralized Exchange (CEX).
There are many CEXs to choose from, but choose wisely. It is recommended that members only use a CEX with US Treasury MSB registration, as discussed earlier.
  - U.S. Centralized Exchanges (CEXs) Registered as MSBs with FinCEN
These exchanges are compliant with U.S. financial regulations and are registered as Money Services Businesses (MSBs) with the Financial Crimes Enforcement Network (FinCEN):
    - Coinbase – Registered as an MSB with FinCEN and licensed as a money transmitter in multiple states.
    - Kraken – Registered as an MSB with FinCEN and licensed as a money transmitter in multiple states.
    - Gemini – FinCEN-registered MSB and holds a New York BitLicense.
    - Uphold – Registered as an MSB with FinCEN and licensed as a money transmitter in multiple states.
  - Popular CEXs That Are NOT MSB Registered
These exchanges are not registered as MSBs in the U.S., meaning they operate under different jurisdictions or have faced regulatory challenges in the U.S..
    - Binance – Binance.com is not registered as an MSB and does not serve U.S. customers. Instead, Binance.US was launched as a separate entity but has faced regulatory scrutiny.
    - KuCoin – KuCoin was not MSB registered and recently settled legal issues in the U.S., agreeing to exit the U.S. market.
    - OKX – OKX is based in Seychelles and is not an MSB in the U.S. but serves customers globally.
  - These other exchanges remain popular worldwide but operate under different regulatory environments outside the U.S.
  - Within the member's CEX platform (IE.. Coinbase), new members must exchange their US dollars into USDT(Tether) prior to depositing funds into their Optimus Prime trading account. This is designed to be a 1:1 transaction, $1 USD to $1 USDT.

Later in this presentation, the tax implications will be discussed. Optimus Prime Champion Limited is not required to report member trade profits to the US IRS due to their business license being in the United Kingdom. It is the member's responsibility to track profits. Consult your own tax advisor.

This example is to highlight a new member's trading procedure during their training period of 3-4 days and all future trades.

With $1,000 in provided training funds, the member will trade at the full 2% limit.

This new trade will be:
 $$1,000 \times 2\% = $20$  trade entry amount.

THIS PROCESS IS CLOSELY MONITORED BY OPTIMUS PRIME. DO NOT EXCEED THE TRADE % AMOUNT. MONETARY PENALTIES WILL APPLY!
Apex Alliance Club goal is to TREAT ALL MEMBERS EQUALLY!

How do I trade on OP?

New member's first and all future trades are completed with the same procedure.

New members will gain experience and master these trading techniques in a very short time. With experience, 30 seconds or less during each signal execution trade.

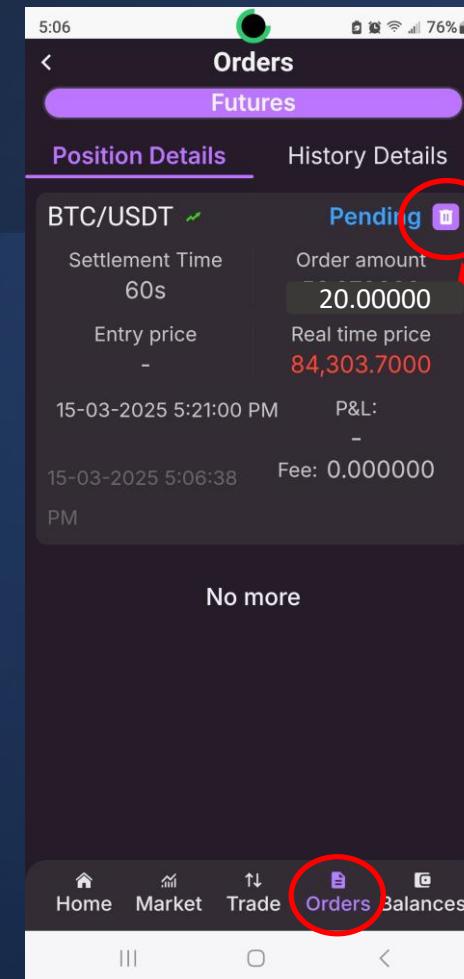

With experience, your entire trading week will take less than 5 minutes to complete all trades in a 7-day, 12-signal trading week!

Members focus on expanding the membership and helping others grow!

Monday – Friday, ACC provides two signals per day at 1:00pm AZ time and 5:00pm AZ time.

Saturday & Sunday, ACC provides one trading signal at 5:00pm AZ time.

Pay attention to daylight savings time changes. The Team will remind you in BonChat.

Position Details

Go back to the OP Home screen. Select “Orders”.

Your pending transaction will be shown.

During your training period, new members are requested to take a screenshot of the pending trade and post it to the Desert Rats Team chat.

During signal trading time periods, Team coaches and members will be watching posted trades. We all work together to ensure new members have placed their trades correctly. If you promptly enter your trade and make a mistake, the Team will let you know.

Plenty of time to complete the trade process.

Don't rush your entries.

Mistake? Select the trash can “trade delete” icon, go back to the trade screen, re-enter your trade to correct the problem and “Confirm” your pending order again. Problem solved!

Post the “repaired” pending trade to the Desert Rats Team chat.

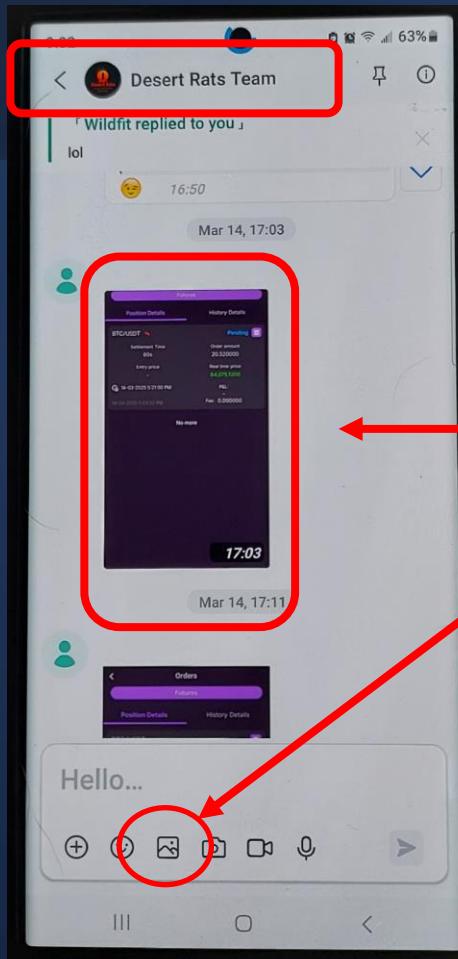

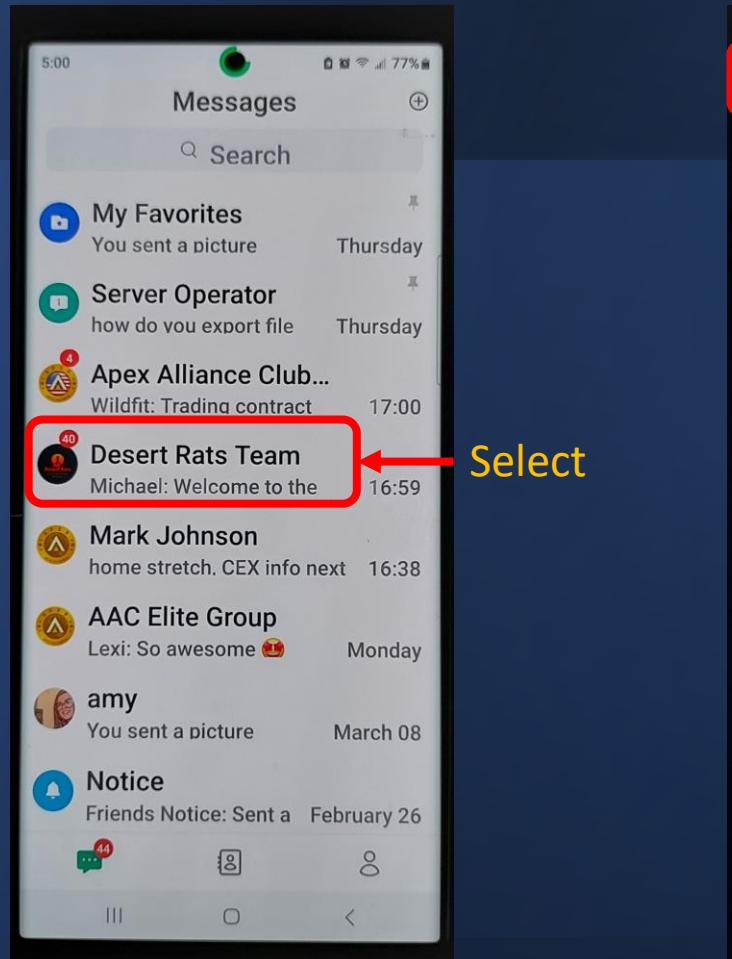

Sit back and watch your future develop.

Those of us who have traded for a long time will still make mistakes.

If you want to post pending trade screenshots indefinitely, no problem. We are all watching, ready to help any member make the

TRACKING YOUR COMPLETED TRADE RESULTS AND PROFITS

From the Home screen,
Select Orders.

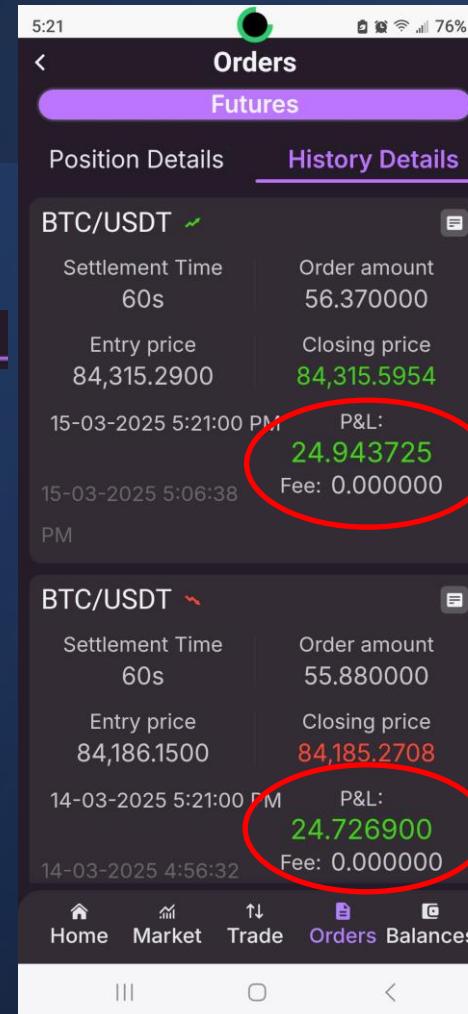

On the “Orders” screen, select History Details

This is an example of a VIP2 member's account showing two completed trades and the resulting profits based on the 2% trading limit.

This member is approaching the VIP2 trade cap of $3,000. This will be explained in detail later in the Handbook.

Therefore, the maximum trade of 2% would limit all future trades to $60.00.

Until at such time a club reward results in an upgrade to VIP3.

Apex Alliance Club guarantees if a LOSS trade occurs, the member's trade funding plus the expected profit probability will be refunded and posted to the member's account as a “Recharge”.

TRAINING COMPLETION - FUNDS ADJUSTMENT

This abbreviated screen shows the training period history example for the final “signal” trade# 6 of 6 over the new member’s 3-4 day trade training week. It shows the approximate accumulate profit in the account based on a 40% profit margin.

The screenshot shows the 'Orders' screen with the 'Futures' tab selected. Under 'History Details', it displays a single trade for BTC/USDT. The trade details are as follows:

Settlement Time	Order amount
60s	20.810000
Entry price	Closing price
84,315.2900	84,315.5954
15-03-2025 5:21:00 PM	P&L:
	8.325161
15-03-2025 5:06:38 PM	Fee:
	0.000000

At the OP Home screen, select “Balances”.

The screen to the right shows the approximate account balance at the end of the new member 3-4 day training period after OP has removed the Training Funds.

Balance represents profit generated from the training activities with no investment by the new member. Balance is carried forward and combined with new member future deposit.

The screenshot shows the 'Balances' screen. At the top, it displays 'Total Balances (USDT)' as 48.970000. Below that, it shows 'Available' as 48.970000. There are tabs for 'Details', 'Deposit', and 'Withdraw'. The 'Futures' section shows 'Daily PNL(USDT)' as XX.XXXXXX and 'Positions' as 0.000000. Below that, it shows another trade history for BTC/USDT with similar details to the previous screenshot. At the bottom, there is a navigation bar with icons for Home, Market, Trade, Orders, and Balances, with the 'Balances' icon circled in red.

NOW WHAT?

My six-trade training period has been completed.
I have a strong understanding of the trading process.

Now I need to know how I can deposit my own funds into the trading platform account?

Not so tough, is it?

New members will now need to select a Cryptocurrency Exchange (CEX) for the purpose of exchanging member fiat currency (US dollars) into the required USDT(Tether) stablecoin prior to making a deposit into the Optimus Prime trading account. As a reminder, USDT stablecoin is designed to be a 1:1 equal to the US dollar.

Choose your CEX wisely. This is a critical decision as was discussed earlier in this Handbook.

APPENDIX – WHAT IS A BLOCKCHAIN? With the help of ChatGPT

Block diagram illustrating how blockchain technology works.

It visually represents how blocks are linked together, ensuring security and immutability through cryptographic hashing and decentralized validation. It's just not spelled very well, ChatGPT AI artwork analysis was free.

How a blockchain works:

Blocks: Represented as individual units storing transaction data.

Hashing: Each block contains a unique cryptographic hash of the previous block.

Transactions: Verified transactions stored inside each block.

Consensus Mechanism: Ensures agreement among participants (e.g., Proof of Work or Proof of Stake).

Decentralized Network: Multiple nodes (computers) validate and maintain the blockchain.

Immutable Ledger: Once data is added, it cannot be altered.
